

who we are. Crossroads is a welcoming church filled with diverse people from many backgrounds. Whether you are curious about God, just starting your faith journey or are a committed follower of Jesus Christ, we invite you to come as you are and take part in the message, the music and the community atmosphere.

children. If you have an infant or child with you, we invite you to make use of our children's programs for infants through 6th grade. We offer one-to-one volunteers during Sunday services for children and students with special needs.

interpretation. Interpretation for the deaf and hard of hearing is available Sundays at 9:30am in the first two rows in the left-center section of the auditorium.

need prayer? Come forward after the service. A pastor or prayer team member is available to pray with you.

next step. Are you new to Crossroads, and have questions about the church? Or maybe you've been attending for a while, and now you're wondering, "What's next?" Stop by Next Step in the atrium, before or after any weekend service. We'll introduce you to a Next Step volunteer, who can help you get connected at Crossroads.

bookstore. We carry Bibles, Christian books and a variety of music. Need a gift, Crossroads apparel or a recording of today's message? Stop by before or after any weekend service.

this weekend. Jesus is one of history's most familiar and mysterious figures. Who is this man? He is the visible image of the invisible God, who is captivating and fascinating us still today. Senior Pastor John Smith kicks off the new weekend series, "Who Is This Man?"

next weekend. Join us as Pastor Katie Martinez continues the series, Who Is This Man?, with a message titled, "He is Inspiring."
