Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance. 1 Corinthians 13:7

What is the issue anyway?

We all have encounters with people and events that _____ our lives at differing levels.

1. Who is a person that had an effect (positive or negative on your life)? How did that person affect you?

2. What is an event that had an effect (positive or negative on your life)? How did that event affect you?

For people who say we believe in the resurrection, it seems to have _____ effect on us.

Surprise, He is Alive!

Matthew 28:1-10; Matthew 28:18-20

1. How were some of the people in the texts above affected by their encounter with the risen Jesus?

What about Paul’s encounter with the Risen Jesus?

The resurrected Jesus affected Paul’s _____ system.

Philippians 3:7-11

I once thought these things were valuable, but now I consider them worthless because of what Christ has done. Yes, everything else is worthless when compared with the infinite value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have discarded everything else, counting it all as garbage, so that I could gain Christ and become one with him. I no longer count on my own righteousness through obeying the law; rather, I become righteous through faith in Christ. For God’s way of making us right with himself depends on faith. I want to know Christ and experience the mighty power that raised him from the dead. I want to suffer with him, sharing in his death, so that one way or another I will experience the resurrection from the dead!

The resurrected Jesus affected Paul’s _____ of people.

Galatians 3:26-28

For you are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus. And all who have been united with Christ in baptism have put on Christ, like putting on new clothes. There is no longer Jew or Gentile,^[c] slave or free, male and female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus.

The resurrected Jesus affected Paul's religious _____.

Galatians 5:11

Dear brothers and sisters, if I were still preaching that you must be circumcised—as some say I do—why am I still being persecuted? If I were no longer preaching salvation through the cross of Christ, no one would be offended.

Galatians 5:16-18

So I say, let the Holy Spirit guide your lives. Then you won't be doing what your sinful nature craves. The sinful nature wants to do evil, which is just the opposite of what the Spirit wants. And the Spirit gives us desires that are the opposite of what the sinful nature desires. These two forces are constantly fighting each other, so you are not free to carry out your good intentions. But when you are directed by the Spirit, you are not under obligation to the law of Moses.

The Point:

The resurrection affects our _____ by freeing us from this world's views of ourselves, others and God.

What about my every day, normal life?

1. Freedom is found in practicing Christlike _____ with your family.
2. "What does _____ ask of me in this situation?"
3. Freedom is found when we realize that Love meets our _____ not God's _____.
4. An _____ soul will choose self-preservation over love when faced with suffering.
5. The soul trained in love will choose _____ - _____ over self-preservation when faced with suffering

So what, why does it even matter if I live into this?

1. When we practice Christlike Lawlessness, we become _____ makers, _____ workers, _____ in the darkness, because that is what love is.

What is God inviting you into today?

1. I would like to get baptized because God has opened my eyes to the power of Jesus' death and resurrection, and I want to live a life governed by love not law.
2. Read Paul's letter to the Galatians
